

For Immediate Release:

Best-Selling Author Lisa See Headlines Ventura County's
One County, One Book Event August 22

VENTURA COUNTY, CA, July 8, 2020 – Ventura County Library Foundation (VCLF) has announced that Lisa See, New York Times best-selling author, will be sharing insights into her latest book, The Island of Sea Women, through a virtual event on Saturday, August 22, 2020, 11AM – 1PM.

For the second year VCLF is partnering with California State University Channel Islands to bring outstanding authors to the County. The non-profit foundation supports the urgent need for STEAM, Chromebooks, WiFi Hotspots, eBooks and homework tutoring. In 2019, VCLF was able to purchase a bookmobile to enhance library access to underserved communities in the County. Sponsors of the One County, One Book event include Montecito Bank & Trust, Barnes & Noble, Mustang Marketing and the Ojai Valley Library Friends & Foundation.

Tickets are limited. A $50 minimum donation allows guests access to this virtual event and each guest will receive a signed copy of The Island of Sea Women in the mail following the event.

To purchase tickets and for more information, contact: events@vclibraryfoundation.org

###

For more information, please contact

Beth Kauffman

bethkauffman2@gmail.com

805-573-6135